Lost some time to rearrange From the base to the top
And it gets you exactly nowhere... it's time...
Short lastin', moving aside... your holdin' back the will to shove
The us you want is still on my mind... it never lost its weight in time... to find this letdown wired inside
I feel forcibly admired... don't know where to send my useless cup And it gets you exactly nowhere...
It's time for settlement...
weight in time... to find this letdown wired inside
