Not so long ago
You became my friend
How was I to know
That that wasn't where it end
Something changed
Inside of me
And whenever I'm with you
I feel so good and really happy
If only you knew
How I'd do anything for you
If only you could see
What all this is doing to me
I love you
And wish you loved me too
But there's nothing I can do
Except hope that in the end
You'll see me as more than a friend
I want you
And wish you'd want me too
But there's nothing I can do
Except wait hope and pray
That someday you'll feel the same way
So silently
I walk up to you
But I know deep down
You don't feel the same way I do
I look at you
You smile at me
Oh why can't I accept
That friends is all you wanna be
If only you knew
How I'd do anything for you
If only you could see
What all this is doing to me
I love you
And wish you loved me too
But there's nothing I can do
Except hope that in the end
You'll see me as more than a friend
I want you
And wish you'd want me too

But there's nothing I can do
Except wait hope and pray
That someday you'll feel the same way
