"Human After All"

Here I am alone
How am I holding on?
Breathing hardly, need releasing
How am I holding on?

Blue sky ends
Rain it clouds my life again
And I know

I'm moving in circles
Nothing can turn me around
Tell everybody
That I must be human after all

All this time is gone
What is right or wrong?
One is waiting, two believing
Love is right and wrong

I can't lie here
All I want to feel is right
But I

I'm moving in circles
Nothing can turn me around
I'm leavin' tomorrow
And I must be human after all
