You might remember when you were feelin' numb
Much confusion and bad advice
It seems lately things have crumbled to the ground
What the hell you gonna do with your life
Oh things you've been missin'
They make room for things that you've done
The price you pay for leavin'
Runnin' around (baby everyday)
I don't need you here no more
Your key don't fit my door

Make sure this is the last time
Don't lose your mind when your're gone
Make sure this is the last time
Iv'e found my way to carry on

I hear rumors fly and you can't wait, to get away from you
Your flavor of the week' got another side
But still you find a way to lay it all on me
And havin' me around's gone to your head
Always something for nothing
And it's always another uphill climb
The price you pay for leavin'
Runnin' 'round (you got to hear me say)
It seems you waste my time
A finer thing, you'll never find

Make sure this is the last time
Don't lose your mind when your're gone
Make sure this is the last time
Iv'e found my way to carry on

Oh, the price you pay
For leavin', runnin' 'round baby everyday
I don't need you here no more!

Make sure this is the last time
Don't lose your mind when your're gone
Make sure this is the last time
Iv'e found my way to carry on
