See I'm just a broken man
Not asking for favors or a lendin' hand
I can't hide the doubt, or disguise what you're about
Still I can't keep you from fallin' out
Oh, about last night
When comfort's heard all your stories
Your're not a virgin anymore
It's not encouraging
To be pushed and antagonized
You're still afraid
To make your own choice

Precious moments,
Don't want to pressure you
Precious moments,
Don't always carry truth

No more beggin'
No more greed
No more prayin' that you'll believe
I'm trying hard but see I'm not that kind
It's time for me to let life unwind
When all is said and done
Look 'round at all the pieces
And find another frozen promise in the haze

You can't stand to feel at home
With just yourself to wonder
This broken carousel will never be the same

Precious moments,
Don't want to pressure you
Precious moments,
Don't always carry truth
Precious moments,
Don't want no pressure
Don't need no pressure
I can't take no pressure from you

You can't stand to feel at home
With just yourself to wonder
This broken carousel will never be the same

Precious moments,
Don't want to pressure you
Precious moments,
Don't always carry truth
