"Stain"

Sun burning hard today,
Cracks my will to remain here,
I find no need to stay
Only to cry wolf another day
Oh the long weeds are choking my breath away
Got to fight hard and never let it

Stain me, not on my time
Stain me, I'll carry the load and I'll never stain

Surprise you truned the page
The ride was a long way home
Dazed and wise I ripe with age
But youth it pulls, it kicks, it screams it knows
See the golden boy is only golden toned
And the seams may crack forever
