Goodbye free Ireland
Try again soon
The tommies and sirens
Are wolves in the moon
Devouring your children
With the law's empty spoon;
They've no time for talking
Who are calling the tune
Your spirit is proven
There's no need to die
For nationalist slogan
Or Religious lie
They've both lived for too long
And they should be long gone
And there'll not be a new song
Until it's been done
