All of a sudden I've taken a swerve
Stood in the looking glass oiling my nerve
All of a sudden I've stopped in mid air
Wondering which way and whether I care
Won't you come
Come up and see me sometime
Won't you come
Oh come up and see me
Likely as not in the next few new moons
We'll both be missing familiar tunes
You on the town on your ass on your own
Me trying hard not to reach a telephone
Won't you come
Come up and see me sometime
Won't you come
Oh come up and see me
