Misty blue halos in your deep sea eyes

Kindling the fire that is making me rise

Willing your hands

To unknown lands

Goodbye twentieth century man

Here comes an old beast

I need that velvety silken down

That flows between your thighs

In my mouth and round my lips

To hold you in my inner eyes

Watching your hands

In unknown lands

Goodbye twentieth century man

Here comes and old beast

Won't you come with me

Tasting your journey

You're so beautiful

Drinkable

Watching your hands

In unknown lands

Goodbye twentieth century man

Here comes and old beast
I'm as hard as I can get
You lying there dripping wet
Both suspended a moment away
Celebrating, along the way
Willing your hands
To unknown lands
I'm just a twentieth century man-beast
