"Heroin"

You open the door, I let you in
And you gave in to all this sin
We ate oysters and drank coffee
Seashells lined up all through the sea
I could be your heroin
Stop the rain and let me in
I could soothe all the sin
I could be your heroin
I looked over the blue skies
I take you under, I take you there
I sat upon the top of the stairs
I heard, I heard, I wondered why
I could be your heroin
Stop the rain and let me in
I could soothe all the sin
I could be your heroin
Ease the pain, ease the strain (x6)
I could be your heroin
Stop the rain and let me in
I could soothe all the sin
I could be your heroin
I could be your heroine
Stop the rain and let me in
I could be your heroine
I could soothe, I could soothe
