I forgot about love gone wrong
And where I felt I did belong
I forgot the best days of my life
And how that it's all at a price
All I got left is promises and memories
That make me ill
You know that faith can move mountains
I can't even walk over this hill
There's not much more I can do
Cut out my heart and put it on a plate for you, yeah...
That's another ten things
I don't want to hear
Ten things
Ten things I wanted to be good
Ten things
And I always do what you tell me to

And I kill myself trying
Finding it hard to respect myself
And I feel the love I had dying
I break myself into pieces for you
When I screw myself into you
And I taste the lies on my lips
And I fall into the abyss for you, yeah...
That's another ten things
I don't want to hear
Ten things
Ten things I wanted to be good
Ten things
That's another ten things
I don't want to hear
Ten things
Ten things I wanted to be good
Ten things
