(Yeah)
(All right)
(Ah ah)

Yeah, it's all coming back to you
Yeah, it's all coming back to you
All the things that you used to do

Don't even try
To deny the truth
How can you say what you say
Without proof

Yeah, it all comes down to you
Yeah, it all comes down to you
All the things that you choose to do
Don't even try
To deny the truth
How can you say what you say
Without proof
(Ah)

Yeah, it's all coming back to you
Yeah, it's all coming back to you
All the things that you used to do
And it all comes down to you
Yeah, it all comes down to you
All the things that you used to do
All the things that you choose to do
Things that you used to do
Things that you used to do
Things that you used to do

I think you'd better come back down
Yeah, it's all coming back to you
Yeah, it's all coming back to you
All the things that you used to do
And it all comes down to you
Yeah, it all comes down to you
All the things that you used to do
All the things that you choose to do

All the things that you used to do
Things that you used to do
Things that you used to do
Things that you used to do

I think you'd better come down
I think you'd better come down
I think you'd better come back down
