I'm queen bee
Take a look at me
I'm queen bee
I'm just what you see

I'm queen bee
You've gotta take it easy
I'm queen bee
Do you wanna be me?

I'm queen bee
Take a look at me
I'm queen bee
I'm just what you see

I'm queen bee
You've gotta take it easy
I'm queen bee
Do you wanna be me?

She drives around New York City
She likes to feel
That all the boys find her pretty
But they don't know what drives her
Or where to look to ever find her
She's one of Manhattan's mysteries
And when I talk to her
She says to leave

I'm queen bee
Take a look at me
I'm queen bee
I'm just what you see

I'm queen bee
You've gotta take it easy
I'm queen bee
Do you wanna be me?

Her voice is rather contagious
Her friends find her rather outrageous

She stands on tables and steals their men
She hasn't always been a size ten
She thinks she is the american dream
You know she tells everyone

I'm queen bee
Take a look at me
I'm queen bee
I'm just what you see

I'm queen bee
You've gotta take it easy
I'm queen bee
Do you wanna be me?

I'm queen bee
Take a look at me
I'm queen bee
I'm just what you see

I'm queen bee
You've gotta take it easy
I'm queen bee
Do you wanna be me?

You love the queen
You love the queen
You like to go out
You like to be seen
And be heard
You like to go out

You love the queen
You love the queen
You like to go out
You like to be seen
And be heard
You like to go out

(Oh)

You love the queen
You love the queen
You like to go out
You like to be seen
And be heard
You like to go out

I'm queen bee
Take a look at me
I'm queen bee

I'm just what you see

I'm queen bee
You've gotta take it easy
I'm queen bee
Do you wanna be me?

I'm queen bee
Take a look at me
I'm queen bee
I'm just what you see

I'm queen bee
You've gotta take it easy
I'm queen bee
(Oh, oh)

I'm the queen
I'm the queen, queen bee
Yeah, I'm the queen
The queen, queen bee
Yeah, I'm the queen
I'm the queen, queen bee
Yeah, I'm the queen
I'm the queen oh

(Woah oh oh)
(Queen bee)
(You love the queen)
(You love the queen)
(You like to go out)
(You like to be seen)
(And be heard)
(You like to go out)
