Two weeks of my summer left
I got them all to myself
Two weeks of my summer left
No Dursleys to worry about

And I got a room at the Leaky Cauldron
The Ministry of Magic gave it to me
I can go to Diagon Alley
And buy magic stuff with my parents' money

I got two weeks of my summer left
Got them all to myself
Two weeks of my summer left
No Dursleys to worry about

I could buy a game of Gobstones
I could buy a model of the galaxy
So that I'd never have to study Astronomy again
I could buy the Firebolt
And be the hippest kid that ever played Quiditch
Yeah, I could buy all that stuff
But I should save my inheritance

I got two weeks of my summer left
Got them all to myself
Two weeks of my summer left
No Dursleys to worry about

Two weeks of my summer left
Got them all to myself
