We don't care for your,
Defence against the dark-arts class,
You undermine our intelligence,
We won't take anymore of this.

Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Umbridge you're going down.
Umbridge you're going down.
Umbridge you're going down.
Umbridge you're going down.

Your educational degrees,
Are not welcome in our halls,
You'll never take the place,
Of Albus Dumbledore.

Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Oh my God, You look like a frog,
Umbridge you're going down.
Umbridge you're going down.
Umbridge you're going down.
Umbridge you're going down.
Umbridge you're going down.
Umbridge we're taking you down.
