A little bit of me and a whole lot of you
Add a dash of starlight and a dozen roses too
Then let it rise for a hundred years or two
And that's the recipe for making love.

It doesn't need sugar coz it's already sweet
It doesn't need an oven coz it's got a lot of heat
Just add a dash of kisses to make it all complete
And that's the recipe for making love.

And if you've made it right you'll know it
It's not like anything you've made before
And if you've made it wrong you'll know it
Coz it won't keep you coming back for more

I didn't get from my Grandma's book upon the shelf
I didn't get from my magical and culinary Elf
No, a little buddy told me that you can't make it by yourself
And that's the recipe for making love.

It's not like anything you've made before,
Coz it won't keep you coming back for more.

No, I didn't get from my Grandma's book upon the shelf,
I didn't get from my magical and culinary Elf,
No, a little buddy told me that you can't make it by
yourself,
And that's the recipe, girl that's the recipe to making love to you,
That's the recipe for making love.
