Maybe in another time
A far more distant place
We'd have had less hill to climb
We'd have had a better case

I like love more than this
It's much easier to take
With someone you cannot kiss
Love's impossible to make

This is how it feels
This is how it feels
When you don't know
What you're in for
This is how it feels
Heartache and all
I like love more

Lips you give to me are bland
They were so much sweeter than
With someone you cannot stand
Love is tasteless once again

This is how it feels
This is how it feels
When you don't know
What you're in for
This is how it feels
Heartache and all
I like love more

Here we are
At the bottom of the well
The bottom of a well run dry
Love's a much harder sell
When you're not looking to buy

This is how it feels
This is how it feels
When you don't know
What you're in for

This is how it feels
Heartache and all
I like love more

This is how it feels
Heartache and all
I like love more
