Mister Five By Five

- written by Gene De Paul and Don Raye
- from the Universal picture "Off The Beaten Track"
- as recorded by The Andrews Sisters with Vic Schoen
& His Orchestra, July 22, 1942

Well twirl my turban, man alive
Here comes Mister Five by Five
He's one of those big, fat, bouncin' boys
Solid avoirdupois

Mister Five by Five
He's five feet tall and he's five feet wide
He don't measure no more from head to toe
Than he do from side to side

Mister Five by Five
Got fifteen chins and a line of jive
He's a mellow old cat, a real hep fat
He be Mister Five by Five

That man can really jump it for a fat man
The only trouble is there's no way of knowin'
Whether he's comin' or goin'

Mister Five by Five
He's slightly plump on the solid side
He don't shake it no more from head to toe
Than he do from side to side

Mister Five, Five by Five
He's five feet tall and he's five feet wide
Slightly plump and he can jump
'Cause he's a mellow old fat and a real hep cat

Mister Five by Five
He's five feet tall and he's five feet wide
He doesn't measure no more from his head to his toe
Than he do from side to side

Mister Five by Five-feet-five

He's slightly plump on the solid side
He doesn't measure no more from head to toe
Than'll he do from side to side

Mister Five, Mister Five, Mister Five
He be just little Mister Five by Five
