Everybody is stuck into relations
Their money their job, or their wife
It's so sad, and also mistaken
In the end, you've lived an empty life

In this world of egoism, and selfdestruction
Nothing is really made to stay
Don't you think it's easy to see this
And find it, your own way

This loco goes solo, this loco goes mad
But I am not lonely, no I won't be sad, oh no
Do like I do, and you'll be free!

Cause freedom is just another word for nothing left to lose

Don't let your view be restricted
Cause what you see it's not real
Go for what you really feel inside,
Don't go for the money, or some big deal

This loco goes solo, this loco goes mad
But I am not lonely, no I won't be sad, oh no
Do like I do, and you'll be free!
lose
