Let It Begin (Death of Autotune Remix)

Hassan Naeem

Produced by No I.D. and Kanye West

Whatup Jay-Z

I never spit for a while so let's give it another shot

What say you

Now this is for you and you and

Now let's stop screwing up music

And let's let it begin, begin, begin

So, I heard jay-z and just had to get this verse in

Stop tuning or I'll have to stop your verses

You're the reason my music can't breathe

(Gasp) suffocate, take a holiday pleasee

Breathe, catch me in a dispute

I'll put a stop to you're words and I ain't talkin taboo

Run now, keep the feet quick so u can run miles

But I keep an eye on your shadow like a sundial

Ha, now let me sign this

Starting with cher, and it ended with pain

So don't start a trend, don't let it begin

Begin, begin

I switch my style up

To make sure I never fall down

No autotune in this noo

I tend to stay on my notes

And I ain't hating

But some of ya'll in need of lessons

See you got it boy

I don't need autotune to fix my voice

Nooo

How you like that?

Now this is for you and you and

Now let's stop screwing up music

And let's let it begin, begin, begin

Eh, it's the death of auto tune
And it's aimed at artists who Claim they using it for fans delight
And I just might, believe that if I was stupid, stop, think of generations
And ages of young kids, lookin to be saved from their places
It's crazy, but I feel it with a presence
Cuz music is the saviour from a dying adolescence

Ha now let me sign this
Starter with cher, and it ended with pain
So don't start a trend, don't let it begin
Begin, begin

No-noo

I starteddd off being belittled too, take no offensee

It's the death of autotunee
