Father don't touch this wound, hurts a lot, in spite of time
Father don't touch this face, the skin is over dry, in spite of water
Don't you ever show me the clear way, cause I'm blind
In spite of all that I see Don't you ever ask me for all I believe, that's all I have No mater how high we build

Just stay around here, somehow I've lost the strength I had
Just say you'll be near, it's only some fear
I feel when I'm looking inside meÂ...
DryÂ...just live just die, my mind is overdry

Sitting in the middle of nowhere, it feels like home
Is just another brick on my hands
Isn't like you would like to be, I used to disappear
Just when I'm almost here

Just stay around here, somehow I've lost the strength I
had
Just say you'll be near, it's only some fear
I feel when I'm looking inside meÂ...

ÂiÂiI die you die cause life is overdry!!
