Its the same story. the unhappy ending.
I play the loser that seems to be winning.
I seem to be winning in your eyes.
By my action i expose myself, i open to weakness,
I fall to my own choices, feelings so far gone so...
Here i am, opened for you to see, what you know.
Ill determine i have tied my own hands,
Hands that hold these walls around.
Ive risked everything now i feel myself breaking
You think i never needed to hold anyone else?
Im scared of losing more, you think you know me?
You think that i don't feel?
You thinks you what you mean to me?
You think i don't hope
