The Chain of Events
Leading up to this
Has come from some unseen Direction

When all that you have is what you shared
Then at once you find it's gone

Go back and forth between two lines
Don't leave a square inch of soil unturned
Laws of motion will kick in and my
My heart will leave my throat

Torn backwards but it feels just like progress
As I bear my name to the ground once again
Forced to live with this
Split seconds are still moments
A daily poison you survive on

The warm breath of life escapes us all in time
But there is "always" and "still holding on"

Go back and forth between two lines
Don't leave a square inch of soil unturned
Laws of motion will kick in and my
My heart will leave my throat

Torn backwards but it feels just like progress
As I bear my name to the ground

Torn backwards but it feels just like progress
As I bear my name to the ground once again

I bear my name
Into
Into the ground
Each story has two sides
Here's how the victim's ends
Your parting not how you had planned

Go back and forth between two lines

Legacy handed down

Lifetime brought to an end

Laws of motion will kick in and my

Parting not how you planned
Split second still moment

Our last meeting playing out
The end

Time heals all wounds except this one

Our last minute playing out
The end

Time heals all wounds except this one

Someday you'll understand
