

Haste The Day "Resolve"

Visit "Resolve" on MotoLyrics.com

Can you feel the tension?
Have you heard the voices of the lost?
Churning up the fire
To reach the dark side of you

When the walls decide to close in
And the floor disappears beneath you
Just hang on to our last words and

Resolve

Touch your hands to water
Place them on the fire
Have faith
The flame will lose it's strength
Just touch your hands to water

Hold your breath for one more second
Soak the torch in kerosine
And light the match and Watch as it all closes in

Can you feel the tension
Can you hear the voices of the lost?
Just hang out to our last words and

Resolve

Our lives will hang on the words
You have spoken
And we will wait for our God to return

Lift your hands to the Heaven
Let your heart be incased in flames

Touch your hands to water
Place them on the fire
Have faith
The flame will lose it's strength
Just touch your hands to water

Our lives will hang on the words

You have spoken
And we will wait for our God to return

Lift your hands to the Heaven
Let your heart be incased
