Well i was driving down the road today and things were getting better for me and some words I thought I heard you say that time was closing in on me well baby just ain't got the time no baby just ain't got the time for waiting any more and I know how to blow your mind and I can blow it anyday and I know how to get you high just light it up and pass it along your way well I was driving down the road today

for waiting anymore
