You start the car in the morning you gotta make it into work the old lady she's on your back you got them bills to pay how did it all get this way??!! you work for the man everyday and working for minimum wage (working for minimum wage) you're back at home and she's been bitchin fat cat banker stalking you you're up at dawn and she's still screaming get you're ass right out the door like she's got it all and I'm her slave the boss man don't care just as long as you stay working for that minimum wage (working for that minimum wage) them greedy pigs them gunslingers they got you locked in a maze there's no hope thank God for dope you're just a rat in a cage they get it all and you're their slave the boss man gets rich he's riding your back and paying you that minimum wage (paying you that minimum wage)
