I'll sing you a monster's lullaby,
I wanna tear you apart,
Just to feel you on the inside.
I can fill the void inside of you,
Just tell me that,
Tell me that you want to...
If you want to be my
Dreadful, darling doll,
You've gotta learn
The cannibal's love song.

Got to make the flesh give awat inch by inch.
Come with me and
Drink in the violence.
Every bite you take
Will make them part of you.
Their smiles will never fade.
And when their bodies break,
Their spirits stay forever in your veins.
