I'm tearing at my hair, once again you've disappeared.
I'm staring out the window but you're still not here.
And I was hoping that it wasn't true, but now it's easy
...for me to hate you. So easy for me to hate you.
So easy for me to HATE YOU.

Every time I'm left behind,
I try to hold it all together UH-OH
Is that another fracture? OH NO
Is that another crack there? UH-OoOOh

I'm pounding on the walls and my fists are still bleeding.
I've shattered every door but,
I can't seem to stop SCREAMING.
And I was hoping that it wasn't true, but now it's easy
...for me to hate you. So easy for me to hate you.
So easy for me to HATE YOU.

Every time I'm left behind,
I try to hold it all together UH OH
Is that another fracture? OH NO
Is that another crack there? UH-OoOOh

It's all about what you didn't say,
And all the questions still unanswered.
It's all about what this meant to me,
And how you act like it doesn't matter.

Every time I'm left behind,
I try to hold it all together UH OH
Is that another fracture? OH NO
Is that another crack there? UH-OoOOh
