

Hate In The Box

"Out Of Reach"

Grasp and reach and fight and scrape,
Nursery rhymes you can't escape.
Spin and reel inside your brain,
Licking wounds you can't explain.
Tattered lips and pleading eyes,
Sing their old familiar lies.
Like, "things will ALWAYS be this way"
and "you will NEVER hurt again"

Everything you want to be is,
Out of Reach, so goddamned empty.
Stifling, you're struggling.
What do you think is waiting for you?
Out on the edge I can breathe,
Fix what's shattering around me.

One step back is much too late,
Two steps back will seal your fate.
The only step that's left to take
Is the one you're too afraid to make.

Everything you want to be is,
Out of Reach, so goddamned empty.
Stifling, you're struggling.
What, do you think is waiting for you?
Out on the edge, I can breathe
Fix what's shattering around me
