"Snow Queen"

sharp and sweet taste on my lips candy cane with the poison-life and death fall intertwined in our kiss oblivion so much sweeter than bliss snow queen you'll kiss me to death so why are your eyes so cold as your breath [x2]

s-s-s-cold in here i'l c-c-c-close my eyes if i should drift away then wrap me up in white [x2]

Whats that sound whats that sound another angel lies dead on the ground falling down all around their wings spread as their feathers fall oh this halo is made of lost memories i stare down at its face not surprised to see

snow queen you'll kiss me to death
s-s-s-cold in here i'l c-c-c-close my eyes
if i should drift away then wrap me up in white [x2]

[lower hard to define part, about snowflakes and a wall of ice sorry, can't define that, then it just repeats until the end.]

snow queen you'll kiss me to death
s-s-s-cold in here i'l c-c-c-close my eyes
if i should drift away then wrap me up in white [x2]
