I'm lying here alone
Don't know what I've done wrong
You're not here anymore
You're not with me

When we broke up I closed my eyes forever
What I feel in my heart is nothing more than hate

Why wont you Give me another chance
Why wont you Hold me another day

When you left me behind
All my feelings and hopes went with you
And everything That's standing here Is just an empty me

All that remains of us
Is just a whisper in the wind
Every blaze in me I felt
Is erased
