"Supremacy Of Self"

Some wars must be fought alone
Am I the only one standing in my way?
Am I my own merciless enemy?
Can I stare back looking deep into death's gaze Can I turn and face myself and the knowledge of what shouldn't be

To look into my heart was to look into hell
Controlled by the voice of fear I was completely overwhelmed
So concerned with the things I could never change
Now I must assure to never fulfil that prophecy

I must attain
Supremacy, of mind
Supremacy, of body
Supremacy, of spirit
Supremacy of self

The war you want is the war I'm willing to give Farewell to all the disbelief suspended in the depths

Controlled by the voice of fear I was completely
overwhelmed
So concerned with the things I could never change
Now I must assure to never fulfil that prophecy

I must attain
Supremacy, of mind
Supremacy, of body
Supremacy, of spirit
Supremacy of self

This war will be won alone
