Oppressed for the colour of the skin
Times have changed Â– People began to think
Once oppressed for the colour of the skin

Free at last Â– Times have changed
Free at last Â– And rearranged

Now you have shown, shown the world
That resistance pays in the end
If you stand for your rights
You can change a whole fuckin' land

Now reorganized Â– Like a new land
Worst times are over Â– Better times ahead
Ahead! Ahead!

Oppressed for the colour of the skin

Free at last Â– Times have changed
Free at last Â– And rearranged

Now you have shown, shown the world
That resistance pays in the end
If you stand for your rights
You can change a whole fuckin' land

Now reorganized Â– Like a new land
Worst times are over Â– Better times ahead
Ahead! Ahead!

Free at last!
