Worthless, is what you made your life
Failure, is what you set yourself up for
You don't have the power to realize your dreams
Now you want to take from me

Jealousy seethes through your callous words
So content you're visionless
Void of emotion
I pray for someone to release me from your grasp

It's evident
Your guilt
It's evident
That this judgment strikes down on you

Unbreakable
And you're guilty
Unbreakable
I'm not going down without a fight

You try to break my world
You breached our trust to destroy me with lies
Now you've fallen you're nothing again
Live my hatred, it's you I despise
Love my hate
Uhh
