You've made excuses
For the fucked up things
You've done but everyone's Heard them before, your
Lying and stealing to feed
Your addictions won't be Tolerated anymore. I tried
To help you but you spit in
My face, so now you're on
Your own I see your life
Slipping away, you brought
It on yourself . . . GO! Those I've hated are the ones I've Held so close, and those who Use betrayal will be the Ones to suffer, the ones to suffer
The most
