Rise looks at me like a bloody eye
I'm sitting in front of screen of window
In my chest is trembling a silent cry
Spirit is breaking loose from my body shell

My sleep resembles a lethargy
Static as a lying stone
In my anthill I'm alone
Life is flowing out with red blood

[Chorus:]
I killed my hope that lied to me
Everything is destroyed, burnt & broken
But now I'm finally free!
I fly in a stream of a wind
Reaching the stars, falling down to earth
A cosmic atom with naive dreams & thoughts

I have escaped from human routine
Nothing holds me here
In the world of suffering, anger & pain
I'm an alien so I go away

My quest is over
I have won & failed at once
It's impossible to change my way
I won't stop till the very end

[Chorus x2]

I'm finally free!
