[Lead: P. Lyse Hansen]

Give me back my anger
Cause Iâ€™ve been trying to live without
Failing miserably very step on the way
Itâ€™s my crutch and itâ€™s my sword
That makes me hard - so hard!

I need this mask to wear
I need this blankeyed stare
I need this thorn in my side
I need someone to hate, to make it all right

And I find that Iâ€™m alive
Everything in this world must die!
This rage boils inside of me
I know Iâ€™m in control

Iâ€™m no longer feeling lost
I can make my own truth
No longer scared of the thing I canâ€™t comprehend
I crush it all under one foot

And I find that Iâ€™m alive
Everything in this world must die!
This rage boils inside of me
I know Iâ€™m in control

Nothing can stand against me
No room in my world for opposition
And I turn my gaze on you
This blankeyed stare
