Hatsune Miku "Dream Aid"

Visit "Dream Aid" on MotoLyrics.com

High speed progress Step by step into a trap Moment insignificant No way to penetrate the spotlight surface So stay outside close to your private light Short-term memory Permanently generating Plastic destiny Trying so hard to turn aside All the stress from oneself Intelligence frustrates The polished face A fading race Fed with facts To regenerate the lost inborn abilities We keep on training That difficult breathing A forced, perfect state Protects us from rain

Easiest moving towards Some difficulties fearless Changing skins renew To the beginning again and again A generation exists just one day

Short story Mirrors break Asleep in a crack Man-made aid To alleviate A man-made pain
