Haujobb - Lyrics to Homes & Gardens: Homes And Gardens

"Now you lie here and have a nap. You're very tired'
'But Mommy, I have scary dreams'"

"We're not secure! Just take it easy, I'm right here!"

? ? ? ? ?

Social welfare

Weaknesses lead to riots

Some tenants never left the green

Never left the green

"She's just a piece of plastic." (Optimized v1.2)

"Scary dreams.." (Optimized v1.2)

Empty riots still reflected

And still they cause

Empty riots still inflected

With dubious scores

" waiting here like a fucking vulture, waiting for
somebody to die

So you can take a picture"

The smiling presidents

A living toothpaste commercial

" waiting here like a fucking vulture, waiting for
somebody to die

So you can take a picture"

Checking the constitution

The constitution

Degenerate peace force

Kiss your record kiss your minds

Adventures and exhaulance

Equipment up to date

Too busy for their morals

Too busy for the state

Death in the rainforest
Death in the rainforest

Intelligence still static
Makes me feel sick
Makes me feel sick

A thousand steel drums for the states
A thousand steel drums for the states
A thousand steel drums for you
A thousand steel drums for you
A thousand steel drums for you (Optimized v1.2)
A million steel drums for you!

How (Optimized v1.2)

For you! (MY-1)
For you! (MY-1)

"We're not secure. Just take it easy, I'm right here!" (x2)

" waiting here like a fucking vulture, waiting for
somebody to die
So you can take a picture" (MY-1)

A thousand steel drums for you! (Optimized v1.2)
