Visit "Concrete" on MotoLyrics.com

You love to be in this moment
The past is the past
The future unformed
You prefer to be in this minute with me
Create it yourself on concrete

Defy the madness in front of me
It is better than reality
In the heart of my inner solitude
We will vanish into another world

A link to something larger than ourselves
Takin' one step after another
Kill the chaos
Replace our lifes with love forever

A certain place in the mythology of romance
Covered with initials of forgotten lovers
Multiple layers of reflections
Shape this very image of ourself
