God: Here ya go, boy, sign the form
Just sign on the dotted line
Don't you worry about petty details
It'll be alright in time

Me : Hey wait a sec, this contract's blank
You know there's nothing written here
God: That's ok, I'll fill it in later
Just be sure to lend an ear

All I want is your heart, no promises
Trust in Me with your heart, mind, and strength
And the rest will follow

Me: Hey wait a sec, God
How'd You get out of the box I put You in?
You know for a while I've been comfortable
Living in my sin
God: You know, son, you've been living two-faced
You've really made it into an art
I'll give you true love, true peace, true freedom
Just give me your heart

Me: I love only You, Lord
I want more of You, Lord
