Yours is the weakness
She is on the floor
Standing where laughing
Words you ignore

You need someone to help you settle down
'Cos you're starting to fade
With a look at these arms
How they stand the pain?
Stands the pain?

There ain't no sweetness
There ain't no joy
You can't keep a secret
And how many more

You need someone to help you settle down
'Cos you're starting to fade
With a look at these arms
How they stand the pain?
Stands the pain?

'Cos there ain't no sweetness
That words can't convey
The soul just stop feelings
You can't explain

Need someone to help you settle down
'Cos you're starting to fade
Helps to keep it secret from them all
Keeps them all at bay

Need someone to help you settle down
'Cos you're starting to fade
With a look at these arms
How they stand the pain?
Stands the pain?
Stands the pain?
Stands the pain?
