Let put aside the issues
That are tearin us apart
We got a long way to go
But nows perfect time to start
So quit waiting around for everybody else
To say it's ok
Their approval is a barrier
And it's gettin in the way
What a difference does it make
If they think it's not alright
Don't care if they think it's wrong or right
Another option that means nothing to me
Another restriction controlling me

We wont take it, no we wont take it
Nothing in the world can stop us now
We wont take it, no we wont take it
Don't ever bother trying to keep us down
We wont take it, no we wont take it
Nothing in the world can stop us now
We wont take it, no we wont take it
NO!

Were gonna show them
That were the ones in control
An uprise that was once unexpected
Is now coming unfold
So forget about that past
And what you think you know
Our time is at hand now
And it wont be coat rolled

Generation after generation weve
Been pushed further down with Hopes that we would eventually Forever dismissed cause were Coming back strong and were
Coming back pissed
You don't know us weve
Got to nothing to prove
