To everyone in the world, who's left out on their own
To all the boys and girls with disconnected souls
See the dream awakening before your very eyes

We feel alive inside for the first time
We've got to run not hide from the former lives
We gotta take it, make it, never gonna fake it
This time we're breaking free and making history now

They say the dreams that we're chasing, just a dead end road
But we don't have to embrace the lies that we've been told
The only thing we're missing is a whole new state of mind

We feel alive inside for the first time
We've got to run not hide from the former lives
We gotta take it, make it, never gonna fake it
This time we're breaking free and making history

One day we will see through our tears and our pain
When we stand with the shame in the light
There's a hope that we know and we can't let it go
We've got to hold on tonight

We feel alive inside for the first time
We've got to run not hide from the former lives
We gotta take it, make it, never gonna fake it
This time we're breaking free

We feel alive inside for the first time
We've got to run not hide from the former lives
We gotta take it, make it, never gonna fake it
This time we're breaking free and making history now
