We had the opportunity to perform as "The Who" on NBC's "American Dreams" last year. The show aired October 10th, 2004, and it was just a really, really awesome experience for us. We got to play this song "My Generation", and we found it very challenging because they're...they're...they're legends in my mind, and it's pretty hard to compete with a band like them when you're, you know, just a bunch of, like, guys who can't really play their instruments that well, so... It was really neat for us to be able to do that and, so yeah, here it is: song "My Generation" by "The Who".
