You never ever leave my mind
My sweet, sweet Madeline
Every time I look into your eyes
I feel like I'm alive
And I can barely make a sound
Whenever you're around
And you can find me hiding in the crowd
Next time you come to town
Hey! Hey I've been waiting all day!
Every time I want to say hello
Every time I want to stay I go
Can never find the words to let you know
Sometimes you play my mind a million times

And every time I want to say hello
Every time I want to stay I go
Can never find the words to let you know
Sometimes you play my mind a million times

Wish I could somehow let you know
That all the way from here to Mexico
You're the one and only girl for me
Hehe, tu es un, bonjour, oui oui, OUI OUI!
And my tongue gets tied so quick (Whoa-oh-oh)
I get so nervous I'm feeling sick
I turn into the world's worst Romeo
Every time I try to say hello

You're so fine
Been on my mind
Get nervous every time
I see you hop online!

Every time I want to say hello
Every time I want to stay I go
Can never find the words to let you know
Sometimes you play my mind a million times

Every time I want to say hello
Every time I want to stay I go
Can never find the words to let you know
Sometimes you play my mind a million times

And every time I want to say hello
Every time I want to stay I go
Can never find the words to let you know
Sometimes you play my mind a million times

And every time I want to say hello
Every time I want to stay I go
Can never find the words to let you know
Sometimes you play my mind a million times

And every time I want to say hello
Every time I want to stay I go
I never find the words to let you know
Sometimes you play my mind a million times
