in a world of fate
where no one seems to care I feel so afraid but you are always there when time is standing still and no one is around you are there standing my ground

cuz I can feel you change my heart you've overwhelmed me from the start you only take what's yours heaven knows I take much more shadows overcome my soul I know I know I know you're there

you overwhelm me from the start and I can feel you change my mind for the better of mankind
I can feel you change my heart
cuz i can feel you change my mind
for the better of mankind
