Hey Child
You're so wise
Will you tell me what you're thinking
I don't need an answer
Just to talk to you awhile
I stop searching
When I see you smile

Yeah child
I am crying
'Cause I know just how you're feeling
But there wont be an answer
For a long long while
So promise me
You won't stop dreaming

Chorus:
Color rainbows in the sky
And follow to a heart of gold
There's a saviour born every day
In the valley of your soul

It's you child
So learn the truth
Though most folks they'll keep on lying
There wil be an answer
Just you give yourself the time
And promise me
You won't stop trying

Chorus
