the happiest day i know
is a Tokyo bicycle

and it was in Paris just passed the Place De Vosges
i went into Muji

i was ticked off to the place by a friend from london down(?) she said its got the nicest stuff to find there was there to be found

and Mr shebuya
he owns the subway car you don't fuck with him any day no matter who you are you may have friends in the embassy but they wont come when you call you better ride your bike outta here before I'm forced to watch you fall
