The brake lights
Are really quite lovely
Thousands of souls
All stopping together

*~On the highway tonight
There's no reason to cry out your eyes~*

The city
starts fading behind us Thousands of souls all wishing Things were better

Sadness
is waiting to happen for people like us not sure where we're going

Watching the fading Watch everything go by

Sadness
Is all that ever happens
But we have our eyes Set dead on the ocean
